

COMMUNITY HAPPENINGS

This section is an overview of events throughout the Jewish community. We welcome contributions from synagogues and Jewish organizations that wish to inform our TVT community of their special programs by noon on Thursday for publication the following Monday. Event listing is not necessarily an endorsement by TVT.

UCI Professor and Playwright Robert Cohen Dramatizes the Great Jewish American Playwrights

On Sunday, March 4th at 4 p.m. professor Robert Cohen, UCI founding chair of the drama department, will present an “edutaining” program about the great Jewish playwrights, illustrated by dramatic scenes from select works by actors from the UCI Graduate Drama Department. This event is part of the Great Jewish Americans series presented by the Merage JCC. Tickets for the program are available by calling the JCC at 949-435-3400 or online at www.jccoc.org . The cost is $10 in advance and $12 at the door.

An astonishing number of major 20th Century dramatists have been Jewish Americans including Arthur Miller, Clifford Odets, Neil Simon, David Mamet and Wendy Wasserstein to name just a few. Robert Cohen is a professional director, playwright, drama critic, essayist and author. He teaches drama workshops worldwide. For more information about this event and reservations contact Geri Dorman, Merage JCC PrimeTime Adult Director at (949) 435-3400, ext. 303 or email gerid@jccoc.org .
